

CIC Private Debt is actively monitoring the impact of the current unprecedented events on its funds' investee companies.

Staff teams have been organised to ensure business continuity in this exceptional context, while limiting the risk to employees as far as possible.